

GRETA CHANTLADZE-BAKRADZE

ON THE SPANISH-FRENCH ETHNOGRAPHIC AND LINGUISTIC ELEMENTS IN THE BASQUE-SPEAKING WORLD

The paper discusses the impacts of Spanish, French and American cultures on the ethnological identity and on the language of Basques living in Spain, France and South America.

It gives analysis of the mingling of languages and the role of Basque dialects in the formation of literary Basque (Euskaza batua). The paper discusses mosaic type of culture on the example of certain rituals.