ONE SPECIMEN OF SPEECH CODING IN THE ASPECT OF MYSTIC SYMBOLISM

In this paper the author aims at showing the relationship between the culture and its internal reason on the basis of the ecclesiastical doctrine referring to the "inner word" and the "revealed word" - in particular. Language as the "revealed word" takes its origin from the "inner word"; The author of this paper considers Christianity, and Christian mind for "the inner word" of Georgian culture and of Georgian nation. Correspondingly he takes it admissible that "language change revealed outwardly should be explained in relation to the original inner source; With respect to this question the author discusses the famous problem of additional kh and H (also referred to as Khanmetoba - Haemetoba) and draws the conclusion that this linguistic phenomenon is one of the expressions of christianization of Georgians and the Georgian language on the level of essence which served as the marker of converting the heathenish language into the language of Christian writings.
