CASES OF $D \rightarrow G$ ALTERNATIONS IN GEORGIAN AND THE ORIGIN OF SOME STEMS RELATED TO THIS PROCESS IN ABKHAZIAN

The action of the corresponding processes (of I $d \rightarrow g$, II $g^* + a \rightarrow$ III $gra \dots$) should account for the origination of atsogra ("bad"), aitsaa ("worse"), agral ("maize-bread") lexical units in Abkhazian from the kartvelian languages as tsudi ("bad"), diar ("maize-bread", Svan).
