

TARIEL PUTKARADZE, LILI LOMTADZE, LUIZA KHACHAPURIDZE

ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE SOUNDS V, W AND U IN THE DIALECT OF THE GEORGIAN LANGUAGE

The paper gives analysis of the results taped on audio-cassettes in different regions of Georgia.

The data obtained clearly supports the possibility to consider $v//\hat{u}$ and u as allophones of a single spittable phoneme and on the other hand it confirms the idea that \hat{u} allophone is main compared with in modern Georgian.