

NUGZAR TSETSKHLADZE
TAMAZ PUTKARADZE

ANTHROPONYMS OF SHAVSHET-IMERKHEVI

Shavshet-Imerkhevi has been detached from mother Georgia for more than four centuries. For this period many Georgian names have remained, some have changed; some have completely disappeared or have remained. Georgian names enable us to come to certain conclusion to investigate historical anthroponyms of the region.

Many anthponyms are read in assignment of composite toponyms, e.g. "Archilatskaro," "Gorgivake," "Dodokana," "Papunachala" Attention: etc. Determinants of such toponyms refer to the names of the owners of geographical sites.

The given report provides analyses of the corresponding toponymical data.