

IGOR KEKELIA, KAKHABER QEBULADZE

MATERIALS ON TOPONYMY OF ABASHA DISTRICT

Formation of toponyms is determined by the necessity and historical regularities. Without toponyms the mankind would face chaos and confusion.

The article deals with the part of alphabetized toponyms recorded in some of the villages of Abasha District. Most of the geographic names recorded by the authors are published for the first time. Wherever possible, the toponyms are supplied with the illustrative materials, folk explanations and scientific interpretations.