SEMANTIC LOANS OF SOME PERSIAN WORDS TRANSFERRED IN GEORGIAN ACCORDING TO “URBAN DICTIONARY” BY IOSEB GRISHASHVILI

Ioseb Grishashvili's "Urban Dictionary" is rich in Persian or Arabic-Persian borrowings.

Our attention has been drawn to those semantic meanings that were assigned in Georgian.

The article is dealing with one part of such Arabic-Persian borrowings such as: amanati ამანათი, arika არიქა, აჭაჭი აჭული, bala ბალა, zinati ზინათი, taripanuri თარიფანური, თაღლითი tağliti, ლაყაფი laqapi, ლოხმა lohma, მარიფათი maripati.

The acquired semantic meanings are derived through semantic deviation -- reconsideration.

Some of them (bala ბალა, taripanuri თარიფანური, ლოხმა lohma) have become part of archive of the Georgian lexical fund.
